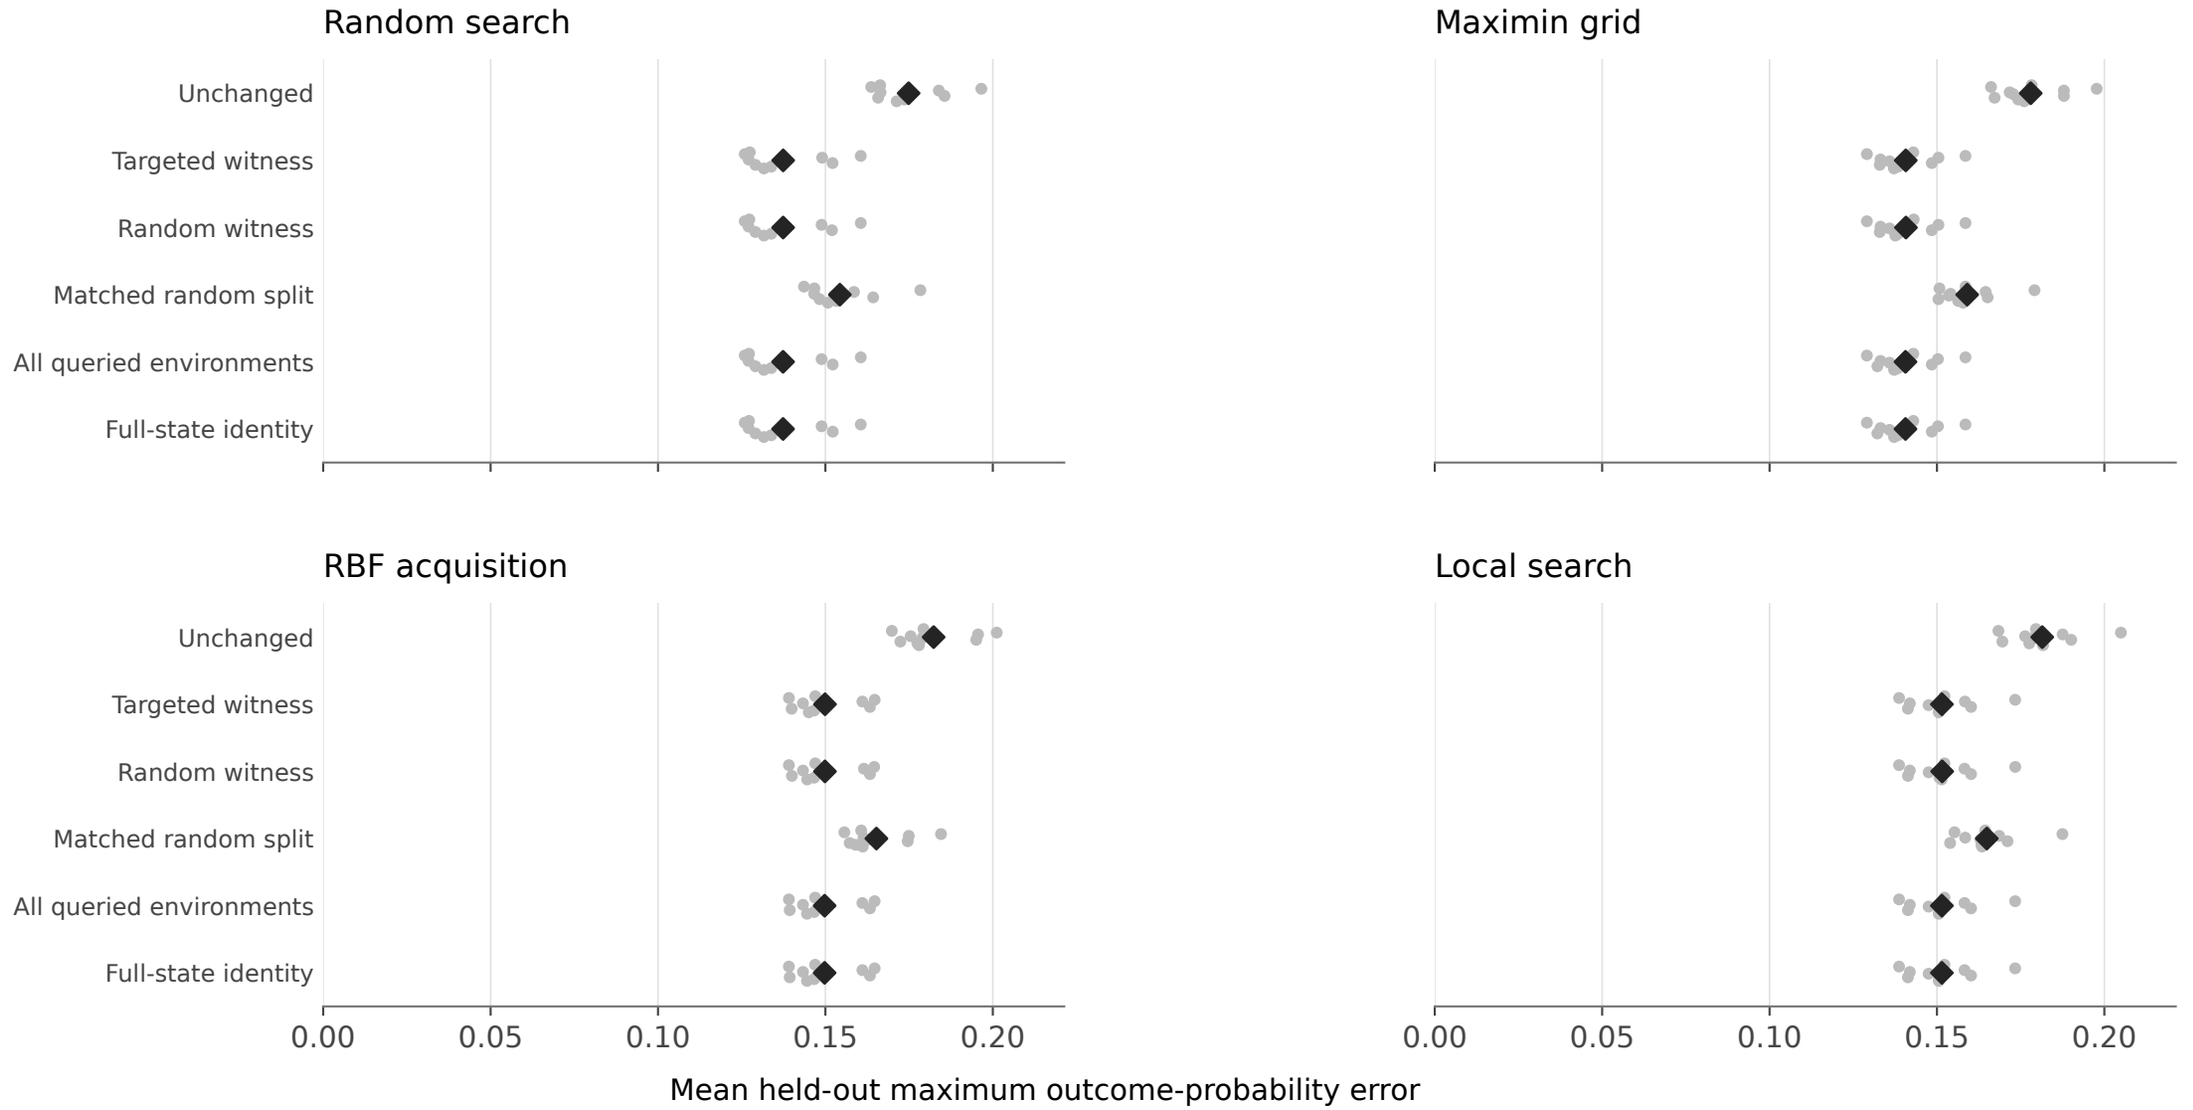
All search methods and all partition controls

Descriptive horizon-10 frontier over all 300 response-changing worlds.
Every search has eight queries; only targeted and random-split controls within a method have exactly matched capacity.



Gray dots: ten seed-level means. Black diamonds: their mean. Full-state identity isolates response-surface learning error.